TV3's Selorm Amenyah who is at the scene gathered that the fire started from the Business Television Africa (BTA) before spreading to the bank and part of the Three Star Coconut Groove Regency Hotel which shared the same compound with the television station.

Another TV station owned by the Groupe Nduom, ATV (Amasan Television) close to the Ghana Immigration Service near the Ako Adjei Interchange in Accra has also been affected.

Everybody has been evacuated from the premises as the fire still rages as at 6:30pm Saturday.

that there is enough tenders to douse the fire, the Public Relations Officer of the Ghana National Fire Service, Prince Billy Anaglatey told journalists.

He said the fire personnel have so far been able to protect other apartments and buildings to reduce impact of the outbreak as the fire threatens to spread.

Most of the structures are made of wood which explains how fast the fire was able to spread, Mr. Anaglatey observed.

It is too early to determine the cause of the fire, he said.
